CITY NOT TO PAY FOR WRECK

P. S. C. Announces B. R. T. Cannot

The B. R. T. will not be permitted to include in the dual subway contract with the city the cost of damage suits resulting from the recent wreck. Nelof legal expenses incident to crimina prosecutions of its officials. Notice to Public Service Commission. If the ex-penses referred to were permitted, the commission says, it would greatly in-rease the city's deficit.

The commission will also take up the question of whether the B. R. T. has arfeited its emire contract with the city because of the accident. This screement provides that the company shail operate the railroad "carefully and skilfully, according to the highest standards of railway operation, and with due regard to the safety of the passengers and employees thereof and all other persons."
